CHICAGO POLICE DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCES COMMAND STAFF PROMOTION

CHICAGO — Superintendent David O. Brown today announced the promotion of Captain Andre Parham to Commander of the 15th (Austin) District.

"Commander Parham has more than two decades of experience in the Chicago Police Department and has shown his unwavering commitment to the safety of our communities," said Superintendent Brown. "I am confident that he will bring this same passion and dedication as the leader of the 15th District."

Parham, a 24-year member of the Department, most recently served as the executive officer of the 11th (Harrison) District. He previously served as a lieutenant in the Area 4 Detective Division, the Bureau of Internal Affairs and in the 22nd (Morgan Park) District. Prior to that, he was a sergeant for Area South's Violent Crimes Unit. He also served as a tactical team sergeant in the 15th District, which he will now lead.

Parham holds a master's degree in Public Administration Management from Lewis University.
