Highlights of 1981. . . .

Chicago showed a decline of 11.8 percent in index crimes per 1,000 population for 1981. In addition, Chicago was listed as the 53rd lowest of the 57 cities with 250,000 or more in population that reported index crimes to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Among cities with more than 1,000,000 in population, Chicago was listed fifth, lowest of the five reporting cities in the order of index crimes per 1,000 population. For the year, Chicago was up 1.6 percent in murder over 1980, while other index crimes declined. Forcible rape was down 5.6 percent; robbery, 0.9%; aggravated assault, 27.9%; burglary, 12.2%; theft, 14.3%; and auto theft, 4.5%.

THREE NEW FACILITIES ARE OPENED

Three new Department facilities, one of them the largest structures to be built to date—the Area 5 Center—became operational during the year. The Property Management Division saw the planning and construction through for the opening and dedication of the 3rd, 4th and 25th Districts. The latter, a new district, is housed in the Area 5 Police Center, a 110,000-square foot complex, which also contains two Circuit Court courtrooms.

NEW BUREAU IS FORMED

A new Department bureau was formed with the inception of the Bureau of Field Tactical Services. The major purpose of the bureau, which has three divisions, is to make a solid impact on street gang-related crimes. Two of the divisions concentrating in that area are the Gang Crime Enforcement North and South Divisions. The other division, the Public Housing Crime Division, focuses on the unique problems confronting the public housing developments throughout the city. The bureau combined the tactical functions of the former Special Operations Group with the investigative functions of the Gang Crimes Division. During the last two periods of the year, the bureau made more than 8,000 arrests.

DETECTIVE DIVISION

The Criminal Investigation Division was reorganized into the Detective Division under the Bureau of Investigative Services. It has two field groups—South, which is responsible for Areas 1, 2, 3, and North, for Areas 4, 5, and 6. Each group has an Administrative Unit, a Property Crimes Unit and a Violent Crimes Unit. The division also has a Special Activities Group which is responsible for the Auto Theft Section, Bomb and Arson Section, Central Investigation Unit and the Financial Investigation Unit.

OFFICER FRIENDLY PROGRAM RETURNS

After an absence of seven years, the Officer Friendly program was reinstated in 12 districts. The officers are assigned through the Bureau of Community Services' Neighborhood Relations Division. The Officer Friendly Program originated in Chicago in March of 1966, as a joint venture of the Department, the Board of Education, and the Sears Roebuck Foundation. With the reinstatement, the Department worked with the Board of Education in selecting schools and police districts that would best benefit from the program. Unlike the old program, which covered students through high school, it is now directed to children from kindergarten through third grade.

MANAGEMENT AND LABOR AFFAIRS SECTION

During 1981, the Management and Labor Affairs Section was established. This unit is a direct result of the contract negotiated between the Department and the Fraternal Order of Police. The section is responsible for those Department activities specifically related to the collective bargaining agreement which was negotiated between the Department and the Fraternal Order of Police. The unit's responsibilities include the administration of the Department's grievance program; providing input to command and supervisory personnel to facilitate a uniform implementation of the contract agreement; coordinating Department labor relations activities with other governmental agencies; serving as the liaison between the Department and the bargaining agent; and providing input into the development of Department directives and training programs that will be in accord with the labor agreement and which facilitate contract administration.

CHAPLAINS UNIT IS ESTABLISHED

A Chaplains Unit was established with a Catholic priest, an Episcopal priest, a Greek priest, Protestant ministers and a Rabbi. The new unit, situated in the Timothy J. O'Connor Training Center, adds another dimension to the services provided by the Department to insure the well-being of all personnel.

TRAFFIC ACCIDENT TRAINING UPDATED

The Department's Traffic Division implemented a detailed, multi-year program geared to upgrading the investigative expertise of its members. The program, funded by the Illinois Department of Transportation, involves technical accident investigation, police traffic management, selective traffic enforcement, on-scene investigation and courtroom testimony.

COMMUNICATIONS OPERATIONS SECTION

In a concerted effort by the Department and with cooperation of newspapers, radio and television, calls to the emergency 911 number declined by 117,452 during the year. The purpose of the campaign was to discourage frivolous calls that could be handled by other city agencies and free the 911 line for bona fide emergencies handled by the Communications Operations Section.

DOLLS ARE USEFUL IN ABUSE CASES

Officers with prior investigative experience relating to sexual abuse of children underwent training in the use of specially made dolls to be used during interviews with young children, or mentally handicapped victims of a sexual assault. The dolls are made of cloth and yarn, but are anatomically correct. Each set of black and white dolls consists of a male adult, a female child and a male child. Through the use of the dolls, young children or mentally handicapped persons can demonstrate to the officers what exactly happened.

OFFICE OF LEGAL AFFAIRS

The Office of Legal Affairs, which is part of the Superintendent's staff, became operational at the beginning of the year. Members of the unit are police officer-attorneys. The Department officer-lawyers have been admitted to the Illinois State Supreme Court, United States District Court, United States Court of Appeals and U.S. Military Court of Appeals. They have been designated Special Assistant Corporation Counsels and represent the City in disciplinary cases before the Police Board. They are active in intra-Department legal matters and worked closely with the City's chief labor negotiator on the numerous sub-committees during contract negotiations with the Fraternal Order of Police.

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE

During the year there were 33 Department awards presented for distinguished service to police officers and civilians.

The awards were bestowed on the awardees at the annual Police Recognition Ceremony, which is held yearly during Police Week.

At the ceremony, two Police Medals, 10 Award of Valor, 11 Blue Star Awards for bravery and for sustaining wounds, seven Award of Merit and three Richard J. Daley Medals were distributed.

One officer was killed in the line of duty during the year.

Other awards received by officers were the Carter Harrison medal, with five receiving Special Honorable Mentions, five Honorable Mentions and nine Special Mentions at the ceremony held in the City Council Chambers; Chicago Jaycees Awards; Red Cross Golden Heart Award; 1,015 Department Commendations and 20,113 Honorable Mentions.

TYPES OF DATA PRESENTED

The tabulations and graphs which follow give data on crimes reported, on arrests and other results of police performances.

The basis of reporting the data is identified as either the 12-month calendar year or the 13-period, Chicago Police year—each Period contains 28 days.

12—MONTH YEAR (1 January through 31 December 1981)

The 12-Month calendar year (365 days) is used where the date relates to the FBI, City of Chicago and certain other reports.

13—PERIOD YEAR (8 January 1981 through 6 January 1982)

The 13-period year is used so that valid comparisons can be made according to workload.

Each of the 13-periods has 28 days, and each of the four weeks in a period begins on the same day of the week. As a result each week and period, with the same number days, has the same number of Fridays, Saturdays, and Sundays when peak workloads occur.
