Wanted for Attempted Kidnapping 14th District (Shakespeare)

About the Crime:

On July 13, 2015, at approximately 7:20 a.m., two juveniles, a female and a male, were walking on the 3000 Block of North Francisco when an unknown male grabbed the female juvenile and dragged her towards a parked white van, which had the rear doors open. The male juvenile witness then grabbed the legs of the victim and began yelling. The male offender then picked up property belonging to the victim, entered the white van, and fled eastbound from the location.

About the Offenders:

The offender is described as a white Hispanic male, 20-30 years old, 5'9"-6'02" and 190-210 pounds, clean-shaven, with dark curly hair, wearing a black and white Adidas jacket and black construction boots.

The vehicle is described as a white work van with no side windows and a large dent on the front passenger side.

What you can do:

- Call 911 to report any suspicious persons or activity
- Walk in groups
- Be aware of your surroundings
- Travel in well lit and populated areas
