Bond: Central Bond Court, 2600 S. California – September 29, 2015

Narrative: The above offenders were taken into custody in connection to a shooting that occurred in the 3000 block of W. Lexington on September 27, 2015, at approximately 9:40 pm. Two male victims were standing outside when the offenders fired shots from a vehicle striking both victims. Officers in the area then observed the offending vehicle fleeing the scene and a traffic pursuit ensued. The offenders were subsequently taken into custody and charged accordingly. Several weapons, including a rifle, were recovered on the scene. The first victim, an 18-year-old male, was transported to Mt. Sinai Hospital in stable condition after he sustained a gunshot wound to the chest. The second victim, a 23-year-old man, refused medical attention on the scene with a graze wound to the wrist. There is no further information available.
