Wanted for Attempt Kidnaping 16th District (Jefferson Park)

About This Crime

On January 7, 2016, between 3:00 and 3:30 pm, a teenage female victim was walking east bound in the 5800 block of West Bryn Mawr Ave. The offender, who was driving east bound on Bryn Mawr, stopped his vehicle in the traffic lane in the vicinity of Menard Ave and called out to the victim. The offender then placed his vehicle in park and approached the victim, telling her to "come here" and attempted to grab her arm. The victim pulled away and continued walking eastbound at which time the offender followed her at a distance. The victim continued to Luna Ave where she turned and walked southbound. The offender also drove southbound on Luna, calling out to her in the middle of the block. The offender continued to follow the victim and when she reached the intersection of Luna and Catalpa the offender again exited his vehicle and approached the victim. The victim again rejected the offender's advances and he returned to his vehicle and fled west bound on Catalpa.

About the Offender

The victim described the offender as a black male approximately 25-30 years of age, 5'09 to 5'11, thin build, dark brown complexion, no facial hair, wearing a tan knit cap, blue knit sweater and black jeans. The offender was driving a newer Jeep Cherokee, red in color, bearing specialized license plates that were dark blue in color and contained the letter "K".
