

Bureau of Detectives – Area South

Community Alert

Residential Burglaries

6th District (Gresham)

Alert # P17-2-116
November 10, 2017

About These Crimes

- On October 28-29, 2017 between 12:00 a.m., and 7:00 a.m., unknown offender(s) forcibly entered the residence in the 700 block of east 90th Place, by forcing open the front door. Electronic equipment was taken.
- On October 27-28, 2017 between 5:00 a.m., and 6:45 a.m., unknown offender(s) forcibly entered the residence in the 500 block of east 87th Place, by forcing open the rear window. Electronic equipment was taken.
- On October 27, 2017 between 4:30 p.m., and 6:46 p.m., unknown offender(s) forcibly entered the residence in the 800 block of east 90th Place, by forcing open the side window. Tools were taken.
- On November 7, 2017 between 3:30 a.m., and 4:55 p.m., unknown offender(s) forcibly entered the residence in the 9400 block of South Calumet Avenue, by forcing open the rear window. Jewelry and electronic equipment was taken.
- On November 9, 2017 at approximately 6:45 p.m., unknown offender(s) forcibly entered the residence in the 600 block of east 89th Place, by forcing open the rear window. Jewelry and electronic equipment was taken.

About The Offenders

- Offender(s)' description is not available at this time.

What You Can Do

- Be aware of this situation and alert neighbors in the area about these crimes.
- If possible, secure all windows and doors, including window unit air conditioners.
- Activate alarm systems when not in your home.
- Remove shrubs that block view of windows.
- Use alert devices and motion activated lighting around your property.
- Do not allow mail or newspapers to accumulate.
- Inform trusted neighbors of any extended absences.
- Call 911 to report any suspicious person(s), vehicle(s) or activity.

If you have any information about this incident, please call the Area South, Bureau of Detectives at (312) 747-8273.
Reference RD #s JA-488579, JA-489810, JA-490385, JA-502837,
JA-505614